AIA STATEN ISLAND COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The AIA SI College Scholarship Award recognizes outstanding students of the Staten Island community whose ambition and creative design thinking will positively influence the future of the architecture profession. Designed to promote the study and practice of architecture, engineering or construction (AEC), this award aims to encourage academic pursuits within these fields and helps to defray costs associated with higher education tuition.

Award

A scholarship of $1,000 to be awarded, with the option to renew throughout the duration of the applicant's under graduate pursuits. Initial annual award and renewal of the award are at the discretion of the Chapter.

Requirements

Applicants are encouraged to provide as many of the below listed as possible:

- Be enrolled or intending to enroll in a Vocational or College Program focusing on architecture, engineering, construction, or related field
- Demonstrate an active interest and initial skills in the AEC fields
- Have proven record of providing meritorious service to the Staten Island community
- Demonstrate marked leadership in scholastic achievements
- Maintain a minimum 3.0 GPA
- Upon graduation, recipients will receive a one-year complimentary associate membership to the AIA SI Chapter. Recipients are expected to participate in Chapter events as well as the Emerging Professionals committee.

Submission*

Submissions must be in accordance with the guidelines below:

- One-page letter of nomination stating the candidate's career interests and contributions to the Staten Island community
- Two examples of creative work
- One-page personal essay describing experiences and interests in the AEC field
- Up to 2 recommendation letters: 1 academic reference letter and 1 personal reference letter (should speak to extracurricular activities, community contributions, character, etc)
- School transcript

Materials submitted as part of the application process may be used by the chapter/related entities for future promotion.*

Applications for the 2021-2022 AIA Staten Island College Scholarship will open Fall 2022.
